

Pinot's Palette Partners with Constellation Brands to Feature The Dreaming Tree Wine in Locations Nationwide

HOUSTON (Dec. 10, 2014) -- Pinot's Palette, an upscale entertainment art studio known nationally for providing guests with a fun night out with painting and wine, is partnering with international wine supplier Constellation Brands to feature The Dreaming Tree wines in all studios with bar and retail sections, making it the first paint and sip chain to implement a nationwide beverage program.

Initially, the featured wines will include The Dreaming Tree's 2012 Crush Red Blend, 2013 Chardonnay, 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon and 2013 Everyday White Wine.

Based in Victor, N.Y., and with more than 40 facilities around the world, Constellation Brands (NYSE: STZ) is a leading international producer and marketer of beer, wine and spirits with more than 100 brands in its portfolio and operations in the U.S., Canada, Mexico, New Zealand and Italy. The company is also recognized as a leader in innovation and sustainable practices, including having the largest solar footprint in the wine industry.

"The Dreaming Tree is a fabulous premium wine and provides us with yet another way to enhance the guest experience," Craig Ceccanti, co-founder and CEO of Pinot's Palette said. "We are very excited to partner with Constellation given its global recognition and superb wine portfolio, especially with the holiday season approaching.”
